

CHAPTER 49.

An act conveying certain tidelands and lands lying under inland navigable waters situate in the bay of San Diego to the city of Coronado in furtherance of navigation, commerce and fisheries and providing for the government, management and control thereof.

[Approved April 27, 1923.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted and conveyed to the city of Coronado, a municipal corporation in the county of San Diego, State of California, all the right, title and interests of the State of California, held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all the tide lands and submerged lands (whether filled or unfilled), within the present boundaries of said city and situated upon the Coronado side of the bay of San Diego, in the county of San Diego, State of California.

Lands
granted to Coronado.
